5. MAYOR’S REPORT
Mayor Eidinger spoke about the following:
• We are in the middle of our joint effort with Murray’s Disposal for Spring Clean Up Week. It was interesting to see people dragging old appliances out to the ROW for pick up, and yard waste abounding. He noted he was grateful that the City is able to give this service to our community.
• As you might already know, the City did not have anyone come in to challenge our Utility Tax ordinance. Thank you for all your hard work over the last year and a half to get a full understanding of the situation, and working to bring it to a successful completion.

• Attended the WSDOT Gateway project meeting (Hwy 167) to discuss next steps and financing outside state funding. They are looking at the option of speeding up the project, but improvements to our traffic flow will be in Phase 2 of the project.

• Attended an all-day planning meeting at Pierce Transit to do long range planning for transit improvements in the county outside of the scope of Sound Transit.

• Brian Levenhagen, the chair of PRAB, and the Mayor met to discuss next steps for moving ahead with the 36th and Meridian Park development.

• Met with Beth Ann Johnson from Mt. View Community Center about their annual Fun Run that they hold and they are changing their date to June 23rd this year.

• New speed limit signs are up as well as the warning signs that alert folks of the change.

Community Development Director Groth briefed on the following:

• Informed Council there is a public hearing scheduled with the Planning Commission next Monday on the Critical Areas Ordinance and 2018 Comp Plan Docket.

Chief Lundborg briefed on the following:

• Discussed the police Facebook posting last week, and thanked Council and staff for allowing an investigator back who has helped tremendously to solve a lot of the crimes in the area;

• Summary of Crime incidents.
