4. MAYOR’S REPORT
Deputy Mayor Christopherson read Mayor Eidinger’s report into the record:
- This past week we added “rumble strips” to our new all-way stop locations to increase awareness of the change. The new speed signs just arrived and we should have them up next week. In addition, the damaged railing in front of Surprise Lake Center has been replaced.
- The Old Coots on Scoots helped again this year, and placed the large flag on the barn - it will stay up until after the 4th of July. Thanks for their commitment to our city.
- Brian Levenhagen, Parks and Rec Advisory Board chair, and I met and have scheduled the council to discuss next steps on our future park at a study session on July 17th.
- Pierce County Regional Council (PCRC) discussed this cycles grant requests and scores. They are planning a training for all councilmembers in September so that more people can be up to speed on what the PCRC does. I will let you know when they firm up a date and location if you would be interested in attending. It should be very informational about how the grant cycle works for the region.
- Connect over coffee appears to be gaining momentum with attendance almost in the double digits and several return visitors last Saturday. Next month’s Connect over Coffee will be at the picnic on July 21st. Deputy Mayor Christopherson has a sign-up sheet for Council, please pick a time that you would prefer to be in the City of Edgewood booth, probably for about an hour each.
- Noteworthy news, the city had an Inspector working last Saturday to verify code compliances within our city.
- Thanked folks who participated in the 5k run/walk last weekend.

Community Development Director Groth briefed on the following:
- Commented that the GIS mapping has received a lot of good feedback, he noted the portal would go live next Monday.
- Gave update on a couple of the “new-hires” and noted that Meg Haley has been working on the city’s addressing; and Jeremy Privett, our new inspector, was out doing some Saturday work and thanked Council for the help and support in getting those folks on board.

Public Works Director Metzler briefed on the following:
- Informed Council of a Public Information meeting he will be having regarding the SWMP on Thursday, June 28th at 6pm

Assistant City Administrator Gray briefed on the following:
- Noted that Stephen Weeks from Sound Morgan was here that evening- he did the installation of the new audio and wanted to give kudos to him for a great job on getting us upgraded.
