- Attended the PCCTA meeting last week and received an update on the implementation of South Sound 911. If you are interested, the presentation is on the Mayor’s dais.
- Roadwork continues throughout the city, the main impacts are around the bigger building projects; note that on the main roads, delays will be at a minimum.
- Thanks to the team from Mountain View Lutheran Church who conducted a litter pick up on some of our streets this past weekend including Meridian and 122nd.

Public Works Director Metzler briefed on the following:

- Discussed Herrera, the timeline and additional funds to revise the narratives on the SWMP and bring figures up from the 1997 plan- he noted the estimated cost would be $14,000. He also discussed the PRAB appointees and three positions that have terms ending at the end of the month, and asked Council if they would like to interview the three for reappointment or go forward with their appointments since there is not enough applicants to interview to fill those seats, and each member is requesting a reappointment. There was council consensus that they would interview the only applicant to fill another vacant seat, but would like the Mayor to go ahead with his recommendation to reappoint the three members whose terms are ending.

Community Development Director Groth briefed on the following:
- Updated council on the EDAB recruitments, and noted that only four are interested in serving on this board- he noted two options would be to go ahead and seat four of them; or possibly bring the four for interviews; there was consensus on interviewing the four applicants.
- Briefed council on the Planning Commission meeting, he discussed the term “perceived density” that kept coming up.

Chief Lundborg briefed on the following:
- Reminded folks that on Sept. 27 Community Academy will begin, and noted the schedule is online.

Councilmember Tomyn discussed outdoor movie nights and noted next year the PRAB is looking at only doing one outdoor movie instead of two since the attendance has declined.

She also asked about looking in to doing the one summer movie in tandem with National Night Out. Discussion took place regarding National Night Out and council meeting occurring the same evening.

Chief Lundborg noted it was tough to do something at city hall that Council can promote and attend, when the police department encourages folks to do things in their own neighborhoods, as that was the intent of what National Night Out promotes.

Councilmember Tomyn asked Mr. Groth if the packets from Buxton have been mailed out to the 20 companies from their list, and if not, if they could pull out the Walmart option until it comes to a SS for discussion.

Community Development Director Groth stated he could check with Buxton.
