Honorable Paul Pastor
Pierce County Sheriff
930 Tacoma Avenue So., First Floor
Tacoma, WA 98402

Dear Sheriff Pastor:

We are writing you to ask that you convey the Council's profound respect for the work of our deputy sheriffs in protecting the citizens of Pierce County every day. The men and women of the Department establish control at every scene and are required to make quick decisions in volatile, uncertain, complex, and ambiguous situations. The Council fully appreciates the responsibilities our Deputies accept as a matter of duty. They maintain order and peace in our County providing the first line of defense for our neighbors.

The Council acknowledges the very special challenges law enforcement faces today across our nation. Please know that you have our full confidence in the performance of your duties.

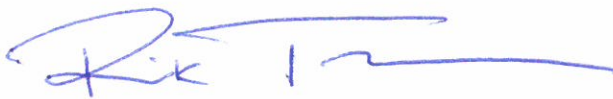

In short, we are honored to have our deputy sheriffs protecting Pierce County and are thankful for what they do.

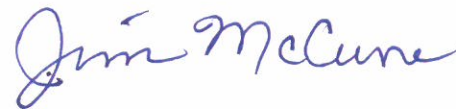

Sincerely,

Douglas G. Richardson, Chair
District No. 6

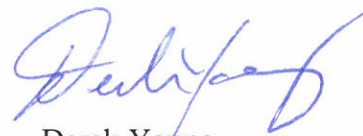

Joyce McDonald, Executive Pro Tempore
