

Tom Gibbons
Madison County State's Attorney

Tom has served as State's Attorney since December 2010, when his appointment was unanimously approved by the Madison County Board. In November 2012, he was elected to continue his leadership of the office. With over 15 years of prosecution experience, he has honed his courtroom skills in a wide range of cases – from traffic tickets to murders. After taking charge of the Office, Tom built upon the solid foundation that was already in place, implementing critical improvements to increase effectiveness and efficiency. One area where he recognized an opportunity for enhancement was in the prosecution of crimes against children. By creating the Children's Justice Division, he unified and streamlined this critical area of work, adding additional prosecutors and resources to ensure the most serious consequences for these dangerous criminals.

Tom lives in Granite City with his wife, two sons and three rescue dogs.

“I believe in the mission and work of the Child Advocacy Center. I am honored to serve on the Advisory Board and to support the amazing work they are doing for the children of our community. The CAC is an integral part of our work at the State's Attorney's Office - securing justice for children and ensuring that they have a voice in the criminal justice system.” –Tom Gibbons
