RESOLUTION 2019-0005
SESQUICENTENNIAL RESOLUTION

Whereas: Michigan was a part of the Northwest Territories and admitted to the United State of America in 1837. The state had been surveyed in the early 1800’s and County boundaries established. Only counties in the southern part of the state were organized.

Whereas: In 1840 the County was named Unwattin County, after a leader of the local Ottawa people. The name was changed March 8, 1843, to Osceola, after the Seminole chief who achieved renown in Florida. The County was initially attached for administrative purposes to Ottawa County. In 1855, it was attached to Mason County; in 1857, to Newaygo County, and in 1859, to Mecosta County.

Whereas: As the population increased, separate County government was organized in 1869 with Hersey designated as the County seat. The 1860 state census listed 27 residents in Osceola County with most of these residents living in the Hersey area. By 1870 the census listed 2,093 residents in Osceola County.

Whereas: The organizational meeting for Osceola County took place in Hersey at Rooney Hall on July 1, 1869 and seated the Board of Supervisors from the townships of Richmond, Middle Branch, Lincoln, Hersey, Sherman and Osceola.

Therefore Be It Resolved, the official birthday of Osceola County is July 1, and 2019 is recognized as the County’s Sesquicentennial Year with special emphasis taking place during the month of July.
