City of Tigard

MARTY WINE DAY - OCTOBER 16, 2020

WHEREAS, Marty Wine began her distinguished career with the City of Tigard as City Manager in 2011; and

WHEREAS, Marty has been a solid presence for staff and community leaders and consistently encouraged regional collaboration to address complex issues like homelessness, budget challenges, Covid-19 continuity of operations and transportation priorities affecting our city; and

WHEREAS, Marty's Executive Leadership Team expressed their admiration for her skill and support as a sounding board, being a voice of calm with a thoughtful approach, her trust, compassion, community-focus, skillful ability to unpack complex and challenging issues facing the city, her open-minded, diplomatic, and humble leadership; and

WHEREAS, Marty provided leadership and advocacy throughout the community serving on the Board of Directors for the Good Neighbor Center, the Washington Co. Cooperative Library Services Executive Board, and the Washington County Consolidated Communications Agency, and exemplary service to the community as part of the Tigard Rotary. She is a leader throughout the city management profession by serving as president of the Oregon City County Management Association; and

WHEREAS, she exemplified true professionalism in her interactions with the City Council and generously shared her deep bank of critical policy knowledge, always working for their success as community leaders; and

WHEREAS, the full scope of Marty's talents and dedication were evident in her work with the city's Strategic Plan, City Report Card, successful Public Safety Levy, the city's Diversity Equity and Inclusion plan, the city's Anti-racism plan, and her professionalism and poise fostered relationship building with our partners at Lake Oswego during the construction of the Lake Oswego-Tigard Water Partnership projects which resulted in the successful delivery of the largest infrastructure project in Tigard's history ($129M/14 MGD) thereby assuring a clean, secure water source for decades to come; and

WHEREAS, Marty maintained a steady hand in the midst of demanding times and organizational change, guided by her loyalty to the needs of the city council, staff and city residents; and

WHEREAS, she brought keen insight, strategic thinking, and fierce focus to tackle the challenges of keeping the city running smoothly and effectively during a global pandemic, economic recession and over the past nine years, snow, flood, wind and wildfire emergency events; and

WHEREAS, she worked diligently with the City Council to develop Tigard AID, Tigard CARES, and Tigard RAFT which supported those most in need because of COVID-19 while managing the needs of staff who faced an uncertain work environment; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Jason B. Snider, Mayor of the City of Tigard, Oregon, do hereby proclaim October 16, 2020 as
