Amy Gabriel is a lifelong resident of Madison County. She attended the University of Illinois for her undergraduate degree in Business Administration. Ms. Gabriel graduated with her J.D. from St. Louis University School of Law. From 2002 through 2015, Ms. Gabriel worked as a prosecutor for the Madison County State’s Attorney’s Office, where her focus and trial experience was based on prosecution of felony child abuse and sexual assault. During her tenure as an Assistant State’s Attorney, Ms. Gabriel was appointed as Chief of the Children’s Justice Division in 2013. Since joining Gori, Julian & Associates in 2015, Ms. Gabriel now works for employees and their families who have been harmed by exposure to toxic substances. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors for the Madison County Child Advocacy Center since 2008, she was also elected to serve as a Library Trustee for the Glen Carbon Centennial Library in 2015.

“To be a part of the Board for an organization like the CAC is both an honor and a privilege. The CAC is critical in giving a voice to our children in Madison County and we must be present and ready to listen.”—Amy Gabriel
