Mike O’Neill
Detective Supervisor, Alton Police Department

Detective Sergeant Mike O’Neill has been with the Alton, IL Police Department for over 20 years. In 2007, Mike joined the Alton PD Criminal Investigations Division. Through the majority of his time in the Investigations Division, Mike primarily investigated child sexual and physical abuse cases, child death, sexual crimes against adults, child pornography, homicides, and missing persons. Mike is currently the general Case Supervisor in the Alton Police Department Criminal Investigations Division, where he oversees all investigations outside of Narcotics. Mike is the Southern Illinois Child Death Investigation Task Force Commander, which covers the 34 counties in the southern part of the State of Illinois. He is also an investigator with the Greater St. Louis Major Case Squad, Crisis Negotiator Team Leader for ILEAS, and is a certified Hostage/Crisis Negotiator.

“The Madison County Child Advocacy Center plays an important role in our community, which is where I have lived my whole life. The Child Advocacy Center concept has become a necessity in criminal investigations and the safety of our community’s children. The professionalism and experience of Madison County CAC staff make this CAC one of the best in the country. As a board member, I plan to do my best in promoting the continued success of this organization.” –Mike O’Neill
