William Lyles, Jr. Address to the Board

My name is William Lyles and I live on Wheatridge in Collinsville and I am speaking in regards to the special use permit for Gail Declue, who has asked for a special use permit to house goats and chickens on her property. She has brought those in without a permit and we have already complained about the shed and to move them. I already know what it is like to live next to this. There is a lot of hawks in this area, the chickens start making noise every time a hawk would land in the trees. This then gets the goats making noise. This then violates the noise ordinance. In addition to that it contributes to waste disposal which is putting it on top of the ground, which then crates a stink that is terrible. I don’t think she should have this permit. She would then need the variance because the building that houses the chickens and goats in is outside of compliance, it is too close. Another variance she asked for was for having the pole barn she constructed to house the horses, that is outside of compliance. It is required to be a minimum of 50 feet from the property line, it is 19 feet from the line. I along with others agreed to variance because she already had the horses. This was only provided if she not put the manure on top of the ground, creating a stink and she was supposed to build a fence around her rear property line so that it block planting trees and block the view. She has all these accessory buildings out there, she has a corral that is a mud area. I am proud to live in Wheatridge and the rest of us keep our yards up and green and for someone to come in under our nose and depreciating our value of our property, I just don’t think it is right.

Leonard Metzger Address to the Board

My name is Leonard Metzger and I live at 8 Wheatridge in Collinsville. This discussion has been going on for about a year. I think we have made a lot of progress this past week with Planning and Development Committee and I thank the members of that committee with their support. The majority of the Wheatridge subdivision residents, signed a petition against Ms. Declue numerous variances requests and special use permit applications that are the subject matter of today’s discussion. The Wheatridge residents in an attempt to move things forward offered a compromise, the horses are there, allow the horses in the pole barn even though it is not in variance, with these conditions, she put a screening barrier across the back property line by planting trees and she properly maintain the manure in a responsible manner. The Planning and Zoning Committee denied the requests for the additional farm animals, I urge you to vote in a similar fashion with those compromises. It is not a problem to allow her to have the horses in the barn but please no other farm animals. This is a residential setting. It is detracting the values of the homes. It is one of the nicer subdivisions in the Collinsville area. I would say based on Ms. Declue’s past actions and the miscommunications that occurred when the barn was first constructed, should be very specific prime line when she plant those trees and please ask for those trees to be maintained. I would hate to see trees planted and not maintained and die and she would feel she has met the condition. Secondly I ask you put a timeline on when those additional farm animals that are already there, the goats and chickens specifically be removed from the property. I take a lot of pride in my home and in my community and in Madison County. I thank the members of the Planning and Zoning Committees for giving us the opportunity to voice our concerns and I thank you for your leadership in helping Madison County be a prosperous and great place to call home.

Diana Howard Address to the Board

I am Diana Howard and I also live in the Wheatridge subdivision. We all know the procedures, ordinances and laws are in place for a good reason and that these should be followed. However, sometimes it is easier to ask for forgiveness than it is to get permission. In this case Ms. Declue did not ask for permission and now is now trying to be in compliance by asking for variance and special use permit request after the fact. Ms. Declue has been in contempt for over a year. This is not one of those times when it is easier to ask for forgiveness instead, as Ms. Dalton previously stated if these variances and special use permits are not denied tonight, Gail Declue is making a mockery of the process that has been put into place to ensure proper zoning to protect the rights of all citizens, their property values and to protect the animals. I would urge you to follow the recommendations of your zoning committee and disallow the goats and chickens in this residential area. This once beautiful property has become a real eye sore with a bare landscape, pure mud, weed infested parking lots, a dumpster and horse trailer in the front of the property and piles of horse manure which we should not have to smell or view. Please restore our neighborhood to what it was when we purchased our homes many years ago by having Ms. Declue follow the laws that are in place and deny her variance and special use permit and to have her clean up the manure and dispose of it in timely fashion.

Dynegy also seeks relief from a provision requiring that Dynegy surrender such excess SO2 allowances to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (“Illinois EPA”). A copy of this variance may be obtained through the Clerk’s Office at the Board, located at: James R. Thompson Center, 100 West Randolph Street, Suite 11-500, Chicago, Illinois 60601, 312-814-3620. Public Notice
Proposed Renewal of the Clean Air Act Permit Program Permit Phillips 66 Company Hartford Lubricants Plant in Hartford

Phillips 66 Company has requested that the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (Illinois EPA) renew the Clean Air Act Permit Program (CAAPP) permit regulating air emissions from its Hartford Lubricants Plant located at 2300 South Delmar Avenue in Hartford. The facility is a blending and manufacturing facility for lubricant products. Based on its review of the application, the Illinois EPA has made a preliminary determination that the application meets the standards for issuance and has prepared a draft permit for public review.

The Illinois EPA is accepting comments on the draft permit. Comments must be postmarked by midnight May 23, 2015. If sufficient interest is expressed in the draft permit, a hearing or other informational meeting may be held. Requests for information, comments and questions should be directed to Jillian Hawkins, Office of Community Relations, Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, P.O. Box 19506, Springfield, IL 62794-9506, 217-524-0922.

The repositories for the draft permit documents are at the Illinois EPA’s offices at 2009 Mall Street in Collinsville, 618-346-5120 and 1021 North Grand Avenue East, Springfield, 217-782-7027. Copies of the draft permit and project summary may also be available at www.epa.gov/reg5oair/permits/ilonline. Copies of the documents will be made available upon request.

The CAAPP is Illinois’ operating permit program for major sources of emissions, as required by Title V of the Clean Air Act (Act). The conditions of CAAPP permits are enforceable by the public, as well as by the USEPA and Illinois EPA. In addition to implementing Title V of the Act, CAAPP permits may contain “Title I Conditions,” i.e., conditions established under the permit programs for new and modified emission units, pursuant to Title I of the Act. This permit contains no T1 conditions that were established in previously issued permits, newly established or revised by this application.

The beginning of this public comment period also serves as the beginning date of the USEPA 45 day review period, provided the USEPA does not seek a separate proposed period.

Finding Of Fact and Recommendations

Mr. Michael Campbell called the meeting to order at 8:30 A.M. in the office of the Madison County Planning and Development Department.

Present were Misters Campbell, Davis, Dauderman, Janek, Koeller, and Sedlacek.
Absent were Misters Kacer.

The Board of Appeals, established by the Chairman and the Board of Supervisors and provided for under the terms of the Madison County Zoning Ordinance, 1963 and all subsequent amendments/ revisions thereto do hereby submit the Reports and Recommendations on the following:

File #Z15-0021 – Gail Declue (Collinsville Township)

File #Z15-0021 – Petition of Gail Declue, applicant and owner of record, requesting a Special Use Permit as per Article 93.025, Section G, Item 19 of the Madison County Zoning Ordinance in order to raise chickens and goats on the property. Also, a Variance as per Article 93.100 (B), Item (2) in order to have eleven (11) hens instead of the allowable five (5). Also, Variances as per Article 93.100 Section B, Items (5) & (6) in order to locate a chicken coop 8.5 feet from the east property line and a chicken run 15.75 feet from the east property line instead of the required 20 feet. Also, a Variance as per Article 93.025, Section H, Item 3 in order to have an accessory building in order to house horses that will be 19 feet from the east property line instead of the required 50 feet. This is located in a "R-1" Single Family Residential District within Collinsville Township, more commonly known as 380 Bethel Road, Collinsville, Illinois PPN#13-1-21-34-20-401-004 (029)

A motion was made by Mr. Koeller and seconded by Mr. Sedlacek that the petition of Gail Declue be as follows: I. That the Special Use Permit and Variances are granted for the sole usage of Gail Declue. Any change of ownership will require a new Special Use Permit; II. The owner shall keep the property in compliance with all Madison County Ordinances; III. The owner shall apply for an amendment to this Special Use Permit for any future alterations, modifications, or expansions of the use; IV. The owner’s failure to adhere to the conditions of the Special Use Permit will cause revocation of the same, and require immediate removal of the domestic farm animals, chicken coop, and chicken run.

The Finding of Fact of the Board of Appeals: I. The notice of Public Hearing was posted on the property in accordance with the terms of the ordinance; II. The legal notice appeared in the newspaper and meets the requirements of the ordinance for publication; III. The adjoining property owners were notified by mail of the time and date of the public hearing; IV. Gail Declue, applicant and property owner, stated that she is requesting a special use permit and variance in order to raise eleven (11) chickens and two (2) goats on her property. Ms. Declue stated that caring for the animals is a lifestyle for her and not just a hobby. Ms. Declue stated that she also maintains two (2) horses on the property. Ms. Declue stated that when her grandchildren visit, she teaches them how to care for all of the animals in lieu of sitting indoors playing videogames. Ms. Declue stated that she cares for the wellbeing and safety of her animals, and that she goes above the requirements by having a dumpster she pays for to dispose of the animal waste; V. William Lyles, adjacent property owner to the north located at 10 Wheat Ridge, spoke in opposition to the request, stating concerns with noise and smell generated from all of the animals. Mr. Lyles also voiced objection to the variances stating that Ms. Declue should be required to meet the minimum requirements of the ordinance. Mr. Lyles submitted a letter of objection for the record; VI. Rod and Brandon Howard, property owners of 2 Wheatfield Court, spoke in opposition to the request due to the amount of chickens being requested and variances for the setbacks. Rod Howard stated that he objects as a taxpayer because the animals are having a negative impact on the surrounding neighborhood. Brandon Howard stated that he walks his dog along Bethel Road and stated that he can smell and hear the animals as he goes by the property. Brandon Howard submitted a letter of objection for the record; VI. Mike Staub, adjacent property owner to the east at 402 Bethel Road, spoke in favor of the request. Mr. Staub stated that he is the most impacted by the special use permit for animals and variances for reduced building setbacks, and that he has no objections to the request. Mr. Staub stated that there is no offensive noise or smell generated from Ms. Declue’s property; VII. Laura and Leonard Metzger, property owners of 6 Wheat Ridge, spoke in opposition to the request. Mrs. Metzger stated that she opposes the request due to the smell, flies, and the variances being requested. Mrs. Metzger stated that she worries about having company over in the summer to enjoy the outdoors due to the smell. Mrs. Metzger stated that Ms. Declue located chickens and goats on the property prior to the changes to the Madison County Zoning Ordinance allowing animals as a special use permit. Mrs. Metzger stated that she believes the property is less than two (2) acres in size and that Ms. Declue’s property is too small for two (2) horses. Mrs. Metzger requested that Ms. Declue install a fence or buffer so that they do not have to look at a mud hole. Mr. Metzger stated that the odor from the horses attracts flies. Mr. Metzger stated that zoning allows people to have two horses on two acres. Mr. Metzger stated that the area where the horses are fenced in is less than half an acre, which is not fair to the horses. Mr. Metzger stated that variances are typically granted prior to performing an action, and in this case Ms. Declue is requesting them after she already installed the improvements; VIII. The Board of Appeals notes for the record that the proposed special use permit and variances would be compatible with the surrounding area; IX. The Board of Appeals notes that the property owner to the east who is most impacted by the setback variances spoke in favor of the request; VII. The Board of Appeals feels that to allow this request would not cause a detrimental effect on adjoining properties; VIII. The Board of Appeals notes that the Comprehensive Plan, Madison County Zoning Ordinance, and the zoning file were taken into consideration.

Where upon the Chairman declared the motion duly adopted

Mr. Meyer moved, seconded by Mr. Maxwell, to adopt the foregoing resolution.

On the question:

Ms. Dalton: I appreciate the work that the committee has done on this. I was present at two of the meetings. I still have a problem, but I know because it is in the unincorporated area, she is allowed to have these horses. But I still have a problem with this because this is a residential area with people living all around it, not only the subdivision, but there is houses on each side. I feel that Madison County needs to look at the ordinances again and I recommend that they do something very promptly so that this doesn’t come into play again. The neighbors on each side of this woman is going to have to look at something that is not very desirable. I am sure a lot of you would not like to live next door to a dumpster in the front yard, a horse trailer and gravel, it makes for a very bad environment. I have been by there about every 4 weeks and the pasture that the horses are in is mud. The horses need to be in green space, not mud. She says she takes care of them, I can’t question that because I am not on her property. But I know there is an area in Collinsville that has 2 horses on it, it is 3 acres of green ground. I think we need to redo some of our laws concerning who gets what. She houses the horses somewhere else and then she built the barn without the consent of the county. She came in then asked for forgiveness, then she asked for a storage barn, now there are 2 horses in it. I have a real problem when they say “grandfathered” in. She has not been there that many years. Everyone else around her has been. I am unhappy with this, I am glad the committee is recommending that she cannot have the chickens and goats, but in my estimation, and I know there is nothing we can do about it, she shouldn’t have the horses either.

Mr. Dodd: Is the lady with the horses grandfathered in?

Ms. Roosevelt: She is allowed to have the horses, it is a 2 acre property.
Mr. Dodd: So you are against it, but you couldn’t get done what you wanted to get done.

Ms. Roosevelt: Actually we did. What we said is the chickens and the goats need to go away because she did not have a special use permit for them. We also denied an increase for her chickens and goats. The horses are not even getting voted on tonight. They are allowed to be there.

Ms. Dalton: Like I said my only problem with this is the fact the county needs to redo their ordinance pertaining to horses. Because it says an acre of ground per horse is fine, except the area she has them in, if you take away the large barn, the chicken coop, her front yard and her home, those horses have about a half of an acre of ground for 2 horses.

Mr. Dodd: Does any other board member that represent the Collinsville area have anything else to say on it?

Mr. Trucano: I was at the same meeting and I understand from what I have heard that the people are satisfied with us passing this as long as she takes care of what she is supposed to take care of.

Mr. Adler: I have a question for Liz Dalton. Are you suggesting we table this matter and send it back to committee, vote to approve it or vote to deny it?

Ms. Dalton: No, you can’t deny or table it. We have already gone through all of that. The law needs to be changed for Madison County on who can have horses and in what area.

Mr. Dunstan: The bottom line is the committee came up with a recommendation that really handles everything but the horses. You support the resolution, but you feel there should be more about the horses, right?

Ms. Dalton: Yes.

Mr. Asadorian: My question doesn’t concern the horses, it concerns the building that was built in violation to our county ordinance and zoning laws. What can we legally do about that? Is there fines that can be imposed when someone violates our ordinances or zoning laws?

Mr. Brandmeyer: As far as the accessory building goes, the requirements change when you store horses in there. Once she brought the horses on the property there was supposed to be a greater setback for the building, but obviously it is already installed. Then at that point she requested the variance. The variance is recommended for approval provided she plants trees to screen.

Mr. Asadorian: If we built something in accordance with certain zoning laws and then decided later to use that for another purpose, do they then have to apply for a special use permit, or do we say you can’t use it for that purpose?

Mr. Brandmeyer: It’s either the variance or you cannot use it for that purpose.

Mr. Brazier: Are the chickens and goats gone? Is there a time frame?

Mr. Brandmeyer: They will be gone. We are in a current violation process that was tabled. Ms. Declue pursued the variances, but now we will move forward with that violation process. We have to go to court for that.
Mr. Petrillo: The difficulty I have with this is in essence the horses would not be there if that barn or building would not have been built. That is my understanding of it. The horses were not there until after that structure was built. That was done without any approval.

Mr. Brandmeyer: The proposal was for storage, not necessarily for horses.

Mr. Petrillo: So then it is a misuse of what she represented when she was building it, I would assume.

Mr. Brandmeyer: Yes, there is a potential work around there. Through the variance process, it catches up.

Mr. Petrillo: I probably will end up voting yes on this, but I have a real problem when people do things when we have laws set and they do things of their own accord. And then we seem to compromise things after that and it is still affects the homeowners around there. I just have a difficulty with that.

The ayes and nays being called on the motion to adopt resulted in a vote as follows:

NAYS: Dodd and Brazier.

Ms. Glasper moved, seconded by Mr. Asadorian, to adopt the foregoing resolution.

On the question:

Mr. Madison: I have a quick statement regarding to new technology and also saving money due to the State of Illinois budget cuts; in the future, I don’t think we are there yet but with the smart phones out today technology is rapidly changing. I have done some research on this and there are a lot of free cell phone apps for the smart phones that will give the weather warning services and alarms. You don’t know if they will be activated but in the same token, code red is also not active unless you make sure it is active. I know when it first started I received those warnings and I don’t anymore. I have to make a phone call to make sure it would happen. Same thing with the smart phone, you have to make sure the alarms are active. I just want to make a statement for future reference, we are not there yet, not everyone has a smartphone, but I would like to see the committee think about this in the future.

Mr. Dunstan: I would strongly urge more people to sign up for code red. I was at the meeting when they discussed this. The mayor of Hamel started this. We have a lot of communities in Madison County that do not have warning sirens. I have talked to a lot of people in those areas and we have been at a homecoming last year in Alhambra and a storm came in and everyone’s phone went off and alerted them. They do work. I wish there was a way to get this information out more to the public so they can sign up for it. You can sign home phones or cell phones and it is a very good program.

Mr. Malone: You can sign up with just your cell phone, it is not strictly limited to land base lines. I live in a community where there is no sirens and I think this is money well spent.

Mr. Dunstan: I agree.

Ms. Novacich moved, seconded by Mr. Asadorian, to adopt the three (3) foregoing resolutions.
On the question:

Ms. Kuhn: On the trucks, what are they used for in the sewer district?

Ms. Novacich: They are used for maintenance for the lift stations and for daily services.

Ms. Kuhn: Is this only for the Granite City area?

Mr. Parente: Special Service Area is Nameoki and Chouteau townships.

Mr. Dunstan: This is not property tax money, they actually pay a sewer fee to pay for this.

Ms. Novacich: There are user fees that pay for these items. This is not county money.

Mr. Parente: I believe there are 91 lift stations in Madison County sewer district. It is a flat area and a lot of pumping and maintenance that takes place.

Ms. Hawkins: This is a very important thing that needs to be done. This is part of the American bottoms, it affects the sewers and lift stations at times. It is a very necessary thing.

Mr. McRae: I have a question for Mr. Gibbons, last week we learned that the US Attorney was recommending that Fred Bathon be released from jail a year earlier, he got a 30 month sentence. Is there any check and balance on that recommendation from the US Attorney from someone who already perceived he got a light sentence already?

Mr. Gibbons: We unfortunately were not given notice of the hearing and under federal law we are not entitled to notice on a hearing like that. If I had the opportunity on behalf of the county I would have argued over any early release.

Mr. McRae: I would just hope that they would offer some kind of explanation to the citizens of Madison County. I think they deserve an explanation. I understand that was not your call. But my opinion, I think the public deserves a more public explanation.

Mr. Dodd: I think numerous people get released from prison. I don’t think this is a one-time thing.

Mr. Gibbons: It is a much too common practice in the prison system. It happens much too frequently in my opinion.

Mr. Dodd: I agree with that, but it was not just created today.

Mr. McRae: Maybe an early release from a 25 year sentence, but not with a 30 month sentences.
